Hoefler Manufacturing Company Organized In Portland.

FORTY THOUSAND CAPITAL

Negotiation for Purchase of Property in Exposition City Upon Which to Erect Manufactory. Will Manufacture and Job Candies and Ice Cream.

Portland, July 10. (Special.)-The Hoefler manufacturing company was incorporated here today with a capitalithousand of which is already paid up. cendiary origin. The incorporators are:

H. R. Hoefler, of Astoria, president; William E. Harris, of Portland, vice-president; R. V. Jones, secretary, and William E. Harris, of Portland, vice-Dr. C. W. Barr, director, both of Astoria.

The deal is being consummated for the purchase of property adjoining the corner of Eighth and Upshur streets. Upon this, it is planned, to erect a build ing suitable for the purpose of manufacturing and jobbing ice cream and candies to the wholesale trade exclusively. The structure, with the plant, will cost in the neighborhood of twenty thousand dollars.

The Astoria end of the business will be controlled by the Hoefler company as a separate corporation.

May Provide Hotel.

Persistent rumors are to the effect that the Palace Catering Company is seriously considering a hotel project which will prove most desirable if the plans are carried out. It is believed that the company purposes to purchase or lease the Page building on Commercial street and convert the structure in to a thoroughly up-to-date hostlery.

Wisconsin Law Cuts Both Ways.

Milwaukee, July 10.-Wisconsin railroads are taking up the new railroad law passed by the legislature of that state at its last session. The bill is a help to the roads in that it abolishes all forms of free transportation, but it also establishes a commission with power to hear complaints against freight rates and establish a rate that it deems proper. It is also clothed with power to enforce this rate.

May Be Prince Charles.

London, July 10,-The Standard's Christiania corespondent says the Norwegian throne has been offered to Prince Charles, of Denmark, the second son of Crown Prince Frederick. Prince Charles is the husband of Princess Maud Alexandria of Great Britain.

conference with advisers, Governor Hoch has not yet decided what to do about requiring State Treasurer Kelly to vacate his office. The governor's legal advisers told himthat there was no law under which he could require the treasurer to give a bond of half a million dollars to repay an old bond. The conference then considered means of relieving Kelly of his office.

Governor Hoch may bring action in the courts against Kelly, but this will be a long process. There is some talk of calling a special session of the legislature to bring impeachment proceed-
